Basis For Admissions Policy

The Bible makes it clear that education is to begin in the home (Deuteronomy 6:7; Proverbs 22:6). Parents are responsible for their children and their education. The New Testament indicates also the responsibility of the church to educate (disciple) as well as evangelize (Matthew 28:19-20; Acts 2:42). The Christian Academy permits the parents to carry out their responsibility to God for the education of their children. This is the prerogative not of the state, but of the parents or church members. Therefore, the Christian school is an educational institution designed to assist the home and the local church in the fulfillment of their Biblically commissioned responsibilities.

For this reason, Greater Houlton Christian Academy will appeal primarily to Christian parents who are seeking a school that is consistent with the beliefs, values and goals of their home. That is not to say, however, that the benefits of Christian education is pointless before regeneration. The student as well as the parent can be provided with necessary awareness of God and responses to His Word, so that when the Holy Spirit brings conviction of sin, he will readily and with full understanding accept Christ as his Savior. Christian education can then carry out its purpose. Therefore, acceptance of students and parents from non-Christian homes will be carefully evaluated on the basis of the student's and parents' strong willingness to have their child(ren) taught according to the Christian philosophy of GHCA. Students in grades 9-12 must have a profession of personal faith in Jesus Christ or at least be open to spiritual teaching in this area. This is done to preserve the fundamental Christian distinctives and mission of the Greater Houlton Christian Academy.
